

JPS continues to give back to the Community

This year, the Jamaica Public Service Company is, once again, a major sponsor of the biennial JMA/JEA Expo, dubbed as Expo Jamaica 2012. This event sees the light and power company contributing $2M to an effort which strengthens national development, through support for our local industries. This is the 5th time that JPS has come on board as a major sponsor.

CHARGE IT! JPS Director Sang Kie Cho (2nd right) is happy to present a symbolic sponsorship card for $2 million to Jamaica Exporters Association (JEA) President Vitus Evans (right) and Minister of Industry, Investment & Commerce, Hon. Anthony Hylton, (left), while President of the Jamaica Manufacturers Association (JMA), Brian Pengelley looks on.

The Jamaica Paralympic Association, Friends of the Sir John Golding Rehabilitation Centre, The Salvation Army School for the Blind and the Kingston College Track and Field Team, were all recipients of assistance from JPS last week, as the electric utility continued to give back to the community. This comes as part of the Company's ongoing outreach programme in education, sports and community development.

JPS Community Relations Officer, Jasmin Wright, is pleased to present a cheque for $100,000 to First Vice President of the Jamaica Paralympic Association, Christopher Samuda, while Jamaica's many time medallist in discus throw, Tanto Campbell, shares in the moment.

In 2010, JPS committed to help support the work of the Salvation Army to the tune of $1.5M, over a three year period. An additional gift of $100,000 was given last week to assist with recovery efforts after the fire which the Salvation Army School for the Blind suffered in 2011.

Community Relations Officer, Daffodil Bruce-Miller happily presents sponsorship cheque to Captain Edward Lyons of the Salvation Army, as a contribution toward the sterling work of the Salvation Army.

JPS is pleased to be offering support to the Jamaica Paralympic Association, as it has done for several years. The Company believes that our paralympians comprise a vital part of our sporting fraternity, and demonstrate clearly for all, our excellence in various walks of life.

Head Physiotherapist and Member of the Friends of the Sir John Golding Rehabilitation Centre, Suzanne Harris-Henry, accepts a cheque from Community Relations Officer, Daffodil Bruce-Miller, toward the efforts of the Centre.

"I know you", Head of Corporate Communication, Winsome Callum seems to say, as she greets Jamaica's recent silver medal parapan American Games Discus Thrower. Looking on in delight representing the Jamaica Paralympic Association, are First Vice President, Christopher Samuda and General Secretary, Suzanne Harris-Henry.

JPS was happy to add to the energy of the Kingston College athletics programme for 2012.

JPS Manager in Systems Control, (and KC old boy), Ricardo Case, hands over a sponsorship cheque to members of the KC track and field team (l-r) Darron Hunter, Jovan Williams, Stefan Fennell, and D'Vaughn McKnight, while Head Coach, Michael Russell looks on.